- The degree of risk assumed by us in undertaking the services including the amount or value of the property involved.
- The complexity of the matter and the difficulty or novelty of the questions involved.

2.4. All work done by us is charged on a fees basis apart from a commission of 5% which is taken on all interest accruing on funds deposited with our bank through our Solicitors Deposit Scheme.

3. Payment of Fees

3.1. We will send you an invoice on completion of the matter, or termination of our engagement. We may also send you an interim invoice.

- 3.2. Invoices, whether interim or final, are payable within 14 days of the date of the invoice, unless alternative arrangements have been made with us. We may require interest to be paid on any amount which is overdue. Interest will be calculated at 15% per annum. Credit card payments incur a 2% surcharge.

Disbursements are to be paid by you immediately upon request but substantial disbursements will be asked for in advance.
- 3.5. Although you may expect to be reimbursed by a third party for our fees and expenses, and although our invoices may at your request or with your approval be directed to a third party, you remain responsible for payment if the third party fails to pay us.

4. Verifying your identity and source of funds, and credit checks

- 4.1. We are required by law to verify your identity and, in some circumstances, the source of funds for a transaction. To enable us to act for you we may require a copy of your passport and utility bill, or another form or other forms of identity that will satisfy the regulatory requirements placed on us by the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act (AML/CFT Act) and its regulations.

- 4.5. You accept that we may use customer due diligence services (including electronic based services from a third party) to verify your identity and conduct other customer due diligence or monitoring required under the AML/CFT Act, and that we may use credit reporting services to credit check you, and that when we use such services:
 - a. the other third party or credit reporter (each a Service Provider) will exchange information about you for that purpose and the Service Provider may hold information on its system and use it to provide their customer due diligence service or credit reporting service (as the case may be) to their other customers;
 - b. we may use the Service Provider's services in the future for any authorised purpose (including in relation to ongoing customer due diligence or the provision of credit). This may include using the Service Provider's monitoring services to receive updates if information held about you changes; and
 - c. if you default in your payment obligations to us, information about that default may be given to credit reporters and given by credit reporters to their other customers.

7. Limitation of Liability and Obligations

- 7.1. Any limitations on the extent of our obligations to you or any limitation or exclusion of liability, are set out in our letter of engagement, or as from time to time is set out in our correspondence to you.
- 7.2. We do not accept liability for any loss arising from non-receipt of any communication including email communications.

8. Termination of Retainer

- 8.1. You may terminate our retainer at any time.
- 8.2. We may terminate our retainer in any of the circumstances set out in the New Zealand Law Society's Rules of Conduct and Client Care for Lawyers.

8.3. If our retainer is terminated you must pay us all fees due up to the date of termination and all disbursements incurred up to that date.

9. Suspension of Service

9.1. We reserve the right to stop work on your retainer if interim accounts are not paid on time or a request for information or action remains unsatisfied.

10. Privacy and Confidentiality

10.1. We will hold in confidence all information concerning you or your affairs that we acquire during the course of acting for you. We will not disclose any of this information to any other person except:

- a to the extent necessary or desirable to enable us to carry out your instructions; or
- b to the extent required by law or by the New Zealand Law Society's Rules of Conduct and Client Care for Lawyers.

10.2. Confidential information concerning you will as far as practicable be made available only to those within our firm who are providing legal services for you.

10.3. We will not disclose to you confidential information which we have in relation to any other client.

11. Files and Documents

11.1. You authorize us (without further reference to you) to destroy all files and documents for this matter (other than any documents that we hold in safe custody for you) 10 years after our engagement ends, or earlier if we have converted those files and documents to an electronic format.

11.2. You are welcome to uplift your file provided that all fees and expenses have been paid. Please give us reasonable notice before collecting your file should you wish to do so.

12. Conflicts of Interest

12.1. We have procedures in place to identify and respond to conflicts of interest. If a conflict of interest arises we will advise you of this and follow the requirements and procedures set out in the New Zealand Law Society's Rules of Conduct and Client Care for Lawyers.

13. Duty of Care

13.1. Our duty of care is to you and not to any other person. Before any other person may rely on our advice, we must expressly agree to this.

14. Complaints

14.1. We maintain a procedure for handling any complaints by clients, designed to ensure that a complaint is dealt with promptly and fairly.

If you have a complaint about our services or charges, you may refer your complaint to the person in our firm who has overall responsibility for your work.

If you do not wish to refer your complaint to that person, or you are not satisfied with that person's response to your complaint, you may refer your complaint by letter, email or telephone to:

(03) 311 8145

(03) 311 8142

The New Zealand Law Society also maintains a complaints service and you are able to make a complaint to that service. To do so you should contact the Law Society on 0800 261 801.

15. Trust Account

15.1. From time to time, as part of your instructions we may be required to hold funds in our trust account on your behalf. We shall monitor the level of these funds and, should there be a material benefit, place these funds on interest bearing deposit at the applicable call account rate. All interest is subject to our administration fee of 5% and applicable resident withholding tax (RWT) deductions.

15.2. Due to the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) we are unable to place funds on interest bearing deposit (IBD) for you unless you have first signed declarations as to your FATCA status. There is a cost in generating the necessary documents, having them executed by you and reporting to our bank/Inland Revenue. This cost may make it uneconomic to place funds on IBD. Therefore, you acknowledge that we need only consider placing funds on IBD for you where the net interest earned will likely exceed $150, the sum we estimate it will cost to complete the FATCA process.

15.3. Sometimes at the conclusion of the retainer there may be a balance of funds held to your credit in the trust account. These will be remitted to you or transferred to another ongoing file if one exists. Due to the administrative costs in dealing with small balances, credit balances of less than $20 will not be refunded but will be donated to Big Brothers Big Sisters, a charity that we support unless you specifically direct us to pay these funds back to you.

16. General

- 16.1. These Terms apply to any current engagement and also to any future engagement, whether or not we send you another copy of them.
- 16.2. We are entitled to change these Terms from time to time, in which case we will send you amended Terms.
- 16.3. Our relationship with you is governed by New Zealand law and New Zealand courts have non-exclusive jurisdiction.
